A GREAT PHYSICIAN SAYS: "75 per cent of all diseases and sickness is caused by the pores becoming clogged, thus shutting up in the blood the poisons and impurities which Nature intended they should eliminate." Pacheco's Dandruff Killer opens the pores and expels all the poisons in the scalp, leaving it clean and healthy.

A LAHAINA
ICE PLANT

Good Opportunity For Investment.

LAWYER COKE TO CHINA

Many Loafing Japanese at Wailuku-- Negroes Prove Excellent Workmen.

WAILUKU, Maui, Jan. 12.—The News says: There is now in Lahaina an excellent opportunity for the establishment of a business at a cost of not exceeding $12,000 to $15,000, which will make the fortune of a live man or company. This is the establishment of a cold storage plant in connection with a fishery, an ice plant and the manufacture of mineral waters. Electric lights, ice and aerated waters would each swell the total receipts of the company, but would pale before the traffic in fresh Molokai mullet and other edible fish which could be shipped to Honolulu, Hilo and Wailuku.
The citizens of Lahaina should not wait for outside capital, but should themselves take hold of the matter and develop it at once. Wake up, Lahaina!

COKE FOR CHINA.
Attorney J. L. Coke, who has recently dissolved partnership with Attorney George Hons, will shortly leave for the Coast with his family. Later he will visit Maui on his way to China, where he expects to make his permanent home.
Mr. Coke has been in Wailuku for a little more than two years, first as a law partner of Attorney John Richardson, and later with Attorney George Hons. He has made many friends here, whose best wishes will follow him to his new field of labor.

JAPANESE LOAFERS.
There is a large number of idle and loafing Japanese hanging around Wailuku, who absolutely refuse to work even when it is offered to them. These men must live, and they are developing a tendency toward a parasitic existence. A comprehensive vag law enacted by the approaching Legislature and strictly enforced by the police, would be a good remedy.

MAUI PERSONALS.
There is no doubt but that Maui will soon be included in the regular line of tourist travel, and work should be begun at once to put the road up Iao Valley in good repair, at least, as far as the third crossing.
Streams of sugar are pouring into Kahului from all the plantations on Maui, and the wharves of the little burg present a lively scene.

The negroes who came to the Wailuku plantation have taken hold of work in earnest, and bid fair to prove a very serviceable lot of men.
Mr. Walter McBryde, of the Mc-Bryde plantation, Kaula, is visiting in Wailuku this week.

W. R. Castle and F. M. Hatch, of Honolulu, came to Wailuku on the Maui and visited Iao Valley on Wednesday morning.
Rev. W. Ault has returned from Honolulu, and will hold services at the Anglican Church, Wailuku, tomorrow morning at eleven.

L. R. Crook, of Ulupalakua, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Wailuku.
The disease among the horses on the ranch has about disappeared. The grass is fine and the cattle are fat on the ranch.
The round-up of the Enos & Co. cattle will begin Monday morning, in which a large number of vaqueros will be engaged. Dr. Raymond, of Honolulu, has come over to look after the interests of the purchasers.

The passengers who landed at Malaka Bay on Tuesday night had a close call. The wind was blowing a gale and the shore boats with the passengers came near being blown out to sea. Some of the boats landed at Kihei.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Caroline Hayselden, of Lahaina, to Reverend William Ault, of Wailuku, Thursday evening, January 24, 8:30 p. m., at the Church of the Holy Innocents, at Lahaina.
On Wednesday a cane fire occurred at Spreckelsville, some twenty acres being burned over. It was ripe cane, and is being cut and milled at once, so that the loss will be nominal. The fire was supposed to have originated from flying sparks from a passing engine.

Mr. Joseph Campbell, the Honolulu contractor, has completed the work on the wharf at Kahului, and returns to Honolulu today. It was the intention of Superintendent Filler to have him begin the building of the new hotel at once, but it has become necessary to delay the work for a while.
A carriage ride through Makawao District, up to the 2,000-foot level, is just now a treat well worth enjoying.
The grass is green and velvety, the atmosphere clear and bright, and the weather soft and balmy, while the view off to the seaward is one of indescribable beauty.

CASES BEFORE THE
TERRITORY COURTS

Damage Claimed in Kawai-hoa Land Suit—Other Matters

In the ejectment suit of David Dayton, as guardian of Thomas Metcalf, a minor, against Helen K. Roland et al., $400 damages are claimed. The contest is over Kawaihoa lands which are yielding $30 per month rental, and the minor's claim is based on his grandfather's will, which devises the property to the minor's late father, Frank Metcalf, and his bodily heirs after death. As already noted, defendant has filed an answer of general denial with notice that for defense she will rely upon the proof of fraud.

Apana is suing D. Kuli for $649.65 debt.
M. Garcia Cordeiro has petitioned for the appointment of M. G. Silva as administrator of the estate of the late M.
Gomes Garrido, who was his son-in-law.
He states in an affidavit that the discontinuance filed by A. G. Correa, acting as his attorney, was without his consent or knowledge. His attorney is J. M. Vivas, and Correa acted for him while he was ill.

Hanapepe, Kaula, and Yua Lee, of Lahaina, Maui, for a debt of $1,347.03 and interest.

Tong Chong Chan is suing the New Zealand Insurance Company for $500 due on loss by the Chinatown fire of last year.

Neumann, Henshall and Davis, solicitors for the plaintiff, have filed a motion to set for hearing on the 21st instant the bill for injunction of Harry R. Hitchcock et al. against Frank Hustace et al.
An affidavit is appended stating that delay will jeopardize the rights of plaintiff and urging the early hearing of the case.

An inventory in the estate of J. A. da Silva, deceased, shows a valuation of $1-05 and a mortgage of $500 on four lots at Kapahulu.

The inventory filed in the estate of Maria Borgess shows an estimated value of $600.10.

By attorneys for plaintiffs, motion has been made to set for hearing the cases of Macfarlane vs. Catton and Fowler & Co. vs. Catton and Macfarlane.

A BENEDICT'S STORY.

A willowy form,
A steed of steel,
A firm control
Of a whirling wheel.

A glint of ribbons,
Of hose, of lace,
A healthy glow
On a pretty face.

A graceful movement,
A witching smile,
And the girl is down
The road a mile.

What? Was I in it?
Well, I should smile!
My Sterling was built For speed and style.

The P. C. M. COMPANY,
In Ehlers' Block,
Supplied my mount
From their high grade stock.

Well, away I flew
With scorching speed,
And—thus won my bride,
Or, my Sterling did.
